

Twin Cities Quality Assurance Association

Individual Membership Application

TCQAA memberships are for one calendar year beginning January 1 and expiring December 31. TCQAA allows for open enrollment throughout the year and memberships can be purchased at any time. However, all TCQAA memberships will expire in December of the year for which purchased. The only exception is for memberships purchased during the months of October, November, or December. Memberships paid during these months will not expire until December of the following year.

The cost of an individual membership is $35.00 per year. Please check the Membership Information web page for any special offers that may apply, and the current Membership Policies.

TCQAA accepts payment via cash or check (made payable to "Twin Cities Quality Assurance Association"). Upon request, a receipt for dues paid will be provided to individuals seeking reimbursement from their companies. Individual memberships can be paid at TCQAA meetings, or by mailing this membership application, with payment, to the following address:

Twin Cities Quality Assurance Association (TCQAA)
P.O. Box 2799 Loop Station
Minneapolis, MN 55402-0799

Individual member name and contact information provided to TCQAA is maintained in the Membership Database, and is "published" in the Membership List, better known as Member Directories.

NOTE:

- This form can be filled-out electronically and emailed to the Membership Committee in advance of payment.
